“Cynthiana Christian Church Disciples family, How God has blessed us with each other! Even in this season of national crisis, God has moved hearts toward kind actions and comforting words. Ed and I received so much encouragement from you during his hospitalizations and rehabs, cards, and phone calls and so many prayers. The gift of about 7 weeks we had from the time he came back from the nursing home, until his last hospitalizations, was time we never expected to have, and we made the most of it – sitting outside in October, especially. He’s well now and home with Jesus. Thank you so much for caring. Blessings at Christmas.” Sharon Ratcliff

“Thanks for all the calls and goodies. See you all at “Spring thaw, Easter, 4th of July maybe Labor Day!! Miss everyone!” Sue Williams

“We really appreciate all the wonderful things that you do for us! You really are the people who care.” Gene and JoEllen Kearns

Minister's Message:

I hope that everyone had an enjoyable Christmas and is finding the new year to be exciting and safe. I would like to thank all of the church staff, committees, and volunteers for the meaningful Advent and Christmas season. Under the circumstances I would consider it to be outstanding in all regards. Thanks also to many of you for the comments regarding the two sermon series on the trees. I enjoyed preparing those sermons for you and delivering them. They were especially meaningful for me due to the music that Pam often shared that matched some of our topics. No one does it better. I am taking this space to share with you that we will be starting a new series this Sunday, one that will be entitled, "Dangerous Prayers." I decided upon this series after reading a tremendous book by that same title, author Susan Hill. This series will feature prayers that were offered by different individuals throughout history. I have placed an article in another part of this week's newsletter for you to have and examine week by week. It would be my desire to have you spend some time looking into the lives of these famous individuals ahead of each sermon. I am sure you will be familiar with many of these persons, but you may be introduced to some for the first time. Please feel free to share your input about our time together discussing the subject of prayer and these people of historical influence. I share with you another note of interest. Beginning next Sunday, January 17th, our church service can be heard at 9:30 A.M. on WCYN, 1400 AM and 101.3 FM. You can still take advantage of present means of being involved in worship, Facebook and YouTube. However this will be a new means of ministry for those who might not have access to this technology. More details will appear in next week's newsletter. Please maintain an active prayer life as we begin a new year, especially for those who have lost loved ones or have been ill or hospitalized. Please keep the church office informed as to prayer requests. Be safe and look forward to sharing with you.
