Minister's Message:

Our church family is saddened by the death of Betty Feedback. Betty was such a joyful presence to be around. She shared those gifts with her family, with students as a lunch lady at the high school, and as a worker at Walmart. Even as a resident at Edgemont, she still was the one who brought daily cheer to fellow residents. One of Betty's enjoyable activities at the nursing home was bingo. It just so happened the other day I was cleaning out some cabinets at church and came across a Fruits of the Spirit bingo card. It listed the fruits of the spirit from Galatians 5:22-23, peace, love, joy, kindness, patience, goodness, faithfulness, self-control, and gentleness. At Betty's eulogy, I mentioned she shared all of these gifts with those she met daily. What a better world this would be if we all displayed those gifts of the spirit in our daily relationships. Why not accept these virtues to share with others during our Lenten season? In bingo terms, these gifts seem to cover it all.

I am pleased to share with you that Phil Cook will be bringing our sermon to us on Sunday. Originally I thought I would be out of town this Sunday, but plans changed. I will be worshipping with you in the pew. We are delighted not only to have Phil delivering the sermon, but to have he and Elizabeth in our church family. Elizabeth is a teacher in Scott County. They have three sons, Tommy, B.J., and Brandon, and twin granddaughters Sara and Lexi. Phil formerly served as minister for the Oxford Christian Church and the May's Lick Christian Church. Phil and I have worked together in church camp programs, as well as Cane Ridge district activities. I appreciate his friendship and his gifts to ministry. He and Elizabeth have been a blessing to us during their time here. Please plan on being a part of our congregation on Sunday to hear an inspiring presentation. Thanks Phil. Until then remember to share your gifts of the spirit.
