YOUR 2015 GARDEN OF EDEN BEGINS!

Another opportunity for the wonderful Garden of Eden ministry has begun! Elder George Frazier has cleaned out his green house and turned on the heat! Seed has been purchased and started! The winter project is being finalized with the purchase of Ken's gift cards to help defray the cost of the severe winter weather of the past few weeks for some of our regular recipients. As is all of the garden ministry, this is done on your behalf with the love of Christ and the care of "the People Who Care!" God bless your generous giving and participation, especially that wonderful free will offering at the Evangelism/Membership Committee's "Potato Fest!" Thanks committee for your thoughtfulness to include that special offering.

All that is needed for now is your praying about and contemplating to what extent you can participate in this year's Garden of Eden joy. Typically, we have about 45 volunteers to either work in the garden on a Wednesday or Saturday (@7:00 to 9:00 AM), or deliver about five to seven baskets of vegetables on a Wednesday or Saturday (@9:00 to 11:00 AM). Of course, there will be a plea for help when garden preparation and planting arrives! Watch for sign up opportunities in the next month or two for joining the Garden of Eden ministry of Cynthiana Christian Church, "The People Who Care." You will bless and be blessed!

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE MEETING

The Membership and Evangelism Committee will meet immediately after the worship service this Sunday, March 22. We will meet in the Sunday School wing, (across the hall from the Office.)

Vol. 65 No. 32 Cynthiana, Kentucky March 19, 2015

Minister's Message:

In the life of our church, we have always been blessed to have outstanding and caring individuals to take care of our church nursery. I have always been so appreciative of them. I first remember Mrs. Bessie Adams, who kept the nursery for years. Then we were blessed with years of faithful service from Deanna Lunsford and various assistants, Hannah Matthews, Laura Ashbrook, Kaitlyn Swinford, as well as volunteers such as other adults and our C.Y.F. youth. Presently our children are blessed to be taken care of by Tina Swinford and Jesse Kendall. I mention this because I read yesterday of a man who attended church and took on a new responsibility. He convicted himself when he put on Facebook, "I volunteered to help my wife yesterday with the church nursery so I could listen to the University of Kentucky's pre-game show." Don't you know he was a lot of help to his wife. She probably would have been better off had he not been there, she would have had one less kid.

He didn't want to help, he wanted to listen to something else. This Sunday's scripture is about the Greeks who come to be in the presence of Jesus Christ. They want to see him, listen to him, and be in his presence. They can't find anyone who will help them in their quest. Here comes Andrew and he does what Andrew always does best, he leads people to Christ. We will talk about leading others to Christ on Sunday morning, as our sermon will be entitled, "Where Have You Gone, St. Andrew?" The main scripture lesson will be John 12: 20-36. I often wonder if you and I are leading others to Christ through our life's example. Do people see and sense a spirit of Christ in our daily living? What do they hear from our conversations? Why is it we can talk to everyone about every subject except maybe the subject of faith? Maybe we can volunteer to do some witnessing for the Christian way. At least the upcoming pre-game show this weekend will be on Saturday.
