Vol. 66 No. 36

Cynthiana, Kentucky

March 31, 2016

Minister's Message:

I just want to express my appreciation to the choir, the church staff, and all the departments who provided for us one of the most inspiring Holy Weeks I can ever remember. It was a spiritual high for all who attended the various services of worship. The music, the baptisms, breakfast, fellowship activities, the youth, the beautifully decorated sanctuary all combined for a memorable week. Truly the presence of the risen Lord was in this place.

Now we come Sunday to learn a few facts about Thomas. You call him doubting Thomas. That is not in the Bible, but another name is. The Bible refers to him as Thomas the twin. A few years ago Presbyterian Frederick Buchner raised an interesting question, "Perhaps Thomas is a twin to each one of us!" After all we all have our doubts, want to see proof. I don't think we want to see the wounds of Christ, we see them already. We see the brokenness in the world. We see the darkness. What we miss seeing is the risen and living Christ in among us. Thanks to many of you who shared how you enjoyed the Good Friday service with the "Voices Near the Cross." I wonder what Thomas would share with us if he were to speak today. Come Sunday and find out as our sermon will be entitled, "A Twin to Each of Us."
