NOTES OF APPRECIATION

“We would like to say THANK YOU to all those that helped around the church during this most difficult time. THANK YOU for the cards, food, flowers, visits, calls, thoughts, prayers and hugs. We could not have made it through this tragedy without FAMILY, FRIENDS AND FAITH. Our church family means so much to us. Cynthiana Christian Church is truly “A People Who Care”. Love you all, Gary and Susan Dearborn.

“A special thanks for all the prayers, cards, flowers, food, visits and phone calls I received during my time of illness. It’s comforting to know my God and Christian Church family are always there to make each day special at a time you are very low. I appreciate and love you all and thank you from the bottom of my heart.” Love in Christ, Beverly Cooper.

“Thank you so much for the cards, prayers, food, support and use of Bish Hall for our family dinner following the loss of our father and husband, Donald Palmer. Your kindness is greatly appreciated.” In Christian Love, The Palmer Family

Vol. 66 No. 42 Cynthiana, Kentucky May 12, 2016

Minister’s Message:

This Sunday we will recognize our high school graduates within the congregation. If you are a graduate and planning on being in attendance, please let us know so we can honor you for your outstanding efforts. We also need the names of college graduates or high school graduates of members of the congregation, such as grandchildren who live in different locations. We will publish that list in next week’s newsletter. I came across some thoughts recently of Phil Castle, a newspaper editor in Grand Junction, Colorado. I appreciated what he was saying. I share some of those thoughts with our graduates.

“Pursue your dreams and remain steadfast in your confidence to make those dreams come true. Consider what the poet Emily Dickinson had to say on the subject. “We never know how high we are till we are asked to rise, and then if we are true to form our statures touch the sky.” Remember the great achievements once deemed impossible: manned flight, a cure for polio and rock and roll music. Thankfully, there have always been those who’ve thought otherwise: the Wright Brothers, Jonas Salk and Buddy Holly. The poet, Oliver Wendall Holmes once reminded us, “alas for those that never sing, but die with all their music in them.” Thoreau encouraged us in this manner, “Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined.” While this might be cliché, it is also critical. Polonius was right: to thine own self be true. You know better than anyone who you are. Don’t try to be anyone else imagined or otherwise. Don’t let anyone else try to define you, either. Remember graduates, that your parents love you. Always have, always will. Nothing – and we mean absolutely nothing – will ever change the way they feel. And if we offer you advice, know that it is really a prayer. Be safe! Be happy!”

Look forward to seeing you and worshipping with you on Sunday.
