Vol. 68 No. 3 Cynthiana, Kentucky July 20, 2017

Minister's Message:

Sunday morning Mary Hollis Partin approached me and asked if I had room for her to ride down to junior high camp on Monday. Mary had attended high school camp several weeks earlier, but wanted to ride down to see some of the counselors for this week, mainly Jack and Jill Koch, who were directing the camp. After dropping off our eleven youngsters and getting them settled, I was ready to make the drive back to Cynthiana. Little did I know I would be driving by myself. Jack and Jill decided they had some extra room at camp and thus invited Mary Hollis to spend the week with them. A quick trip to the new Dollar Store in Yosemite took care of the clothing issue. Plus everyone always has an extra sleeping bag and pillow. Do you know what Mary Hollis Partin and Dawson Peak have in common? They both have ended up staying in camp when they had no intent of doing so. Dawson spent last year at this camp when another camper was unable to attend. Dawson just happened to ride down with me and Jack invited him to stay, making the needed visit to the old Dollar Store. Who knows, maybe the best way to get to spend an extra week at camp is just show up and ride down to Casey County. You also may want to see if Jack is the director.

Jack is always telling me how much he loves the youth from our church. Don't we all? I do not know of one of our youth who would not have done the same thing Mary Hollis or Dawson did. A recent junior camper recently told her mother, "How I wish church camp was two weeks instead of one." This Sunday morning we will talk about the incident in the life of Jacob when he said, "Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place." Our youth feel this about camp. I hope that you feel this about our church, the body of Christ upon the earth. Look forward to seeing you on Sunday for worship as well as our potluck dinner to conclude Vacation Bible School on Sunday evening at the Marie Hehr Park.
