Minister’s Message:

“Slow down!” “You missed the turn.” “Oh, that was my favorite song. Change the station!” A nationwide survey by Insurace.com found out a fact that will in no way be surprising to you. They found that husbands and wives irritate each other the most while driving. The top of the list of annoying habits included driving speed, directions, talking too much, talking or texting on a phone, singing and eating in the car. Other annoyances include pushing an “imaginary brake” on the passenger’s side and holding on to the handles above the passenger door. Children ranked fairly low when it came to annoying habits and complaints. Pesky pets did not register at all, leading us to believe a slobbering dog is much better than a map-wielding spouse.

This week’s sermon scripture is Mark 10: 35-45. It tells us a story of James and John acting like two spoiled kids in the back seat of the car. They wanted to be in the front seat with Jesus, but were questioned in regard to their levels of commitment. God reminds us there are times for us to stay in our booster seats and leave the driving to Him. Be with us on Sunday as our sermon will be entitled, “Riding Shot-Gun.” Until then, be patient, listen attentively, and tell your backseat driver what a pleasure to share the journey with them.

.....Larry
