MORNING CIRCLE

Morning Circle will meet in Bish Hall at 10:00 A.M., Tuesday, November 19th. Our guest will be Jill Morgan, co-owner of The Purple House Press, located near Oddville. As a publishing company, the emphasis is on re-printing classic children's books. She will explain the process of that business and will also have several books on display. Everyone is welcome to come and learn about this unique Harrison County enterprise. Call Martha (859-684-5056) or the church office (234-5332).

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

Sunday, November 17th we will receive our Thanksgiving Offering. This offering benefits the Colleges, Universities, Seminaries, and Divinity Houses affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). These learning communities are an extension of the church, challenging students to understand and respond to God's call to serve. From the very beginnings of the movement, Disciples have founded institutions of higher learning, encouraging students in their intellectual pursuits. The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) is still committed to higher education. Your gift to the Thanksgiving Offering helps underwrite the education of students attending one of our 14 undergraduate institutions and our seven seminaries or divinity houses. Envelopes will be in the pew pockets for your donation.

Library News:

I have just added some new or donated books to the library. Donations include 2 books regarding Cynthiana history, 3 nice cookbooks, a book on gardening and 1 wreath making contribution. The current donation I am most honored to have is by our very own published author, Bruce Florence. It is titled, "Fleecie's Crossing" and is set in Eastern Kentucky. Be sure to check it out. I also want to mention 2 recent donations, given in honor of Gary and Susan Dearborn. "Kentucky Football: Graveyard or Sleeping Giant", and "The Cinnamon Roll Cookbook." We appreciate these 2 special people, and I'm sure you can figure out which book is donated in their honor. Thank you for all the donations and encouraging words regarding the library. Once again if you have any suggestions, please let me know. I hope you find something of interest and enjoy your selections. Happy Reading! Paula Burden

Vol. 70 No. 17 Cynthiana, Kentucky November 14, 2019

Minister's Message:

I strongly want to encourage you to be present with us for our worship service this Sunday morning. One reason is the outreach dinner that will follow the morning worship service. It will be a delicious meal and a time to enjoy great fellowship. The most important reason for urging you to be present is due to the fact that we will have several special guests with us on this occasion. Dr. John N. Williams Jr., who is presently the Interim President of Transylvania University, will be one of those. Dr. Williams has an impressive career in higher education, having held provost and dean positions at Indiana University, the University of North Carolina, and the University of Louisville. The second guest will be Diana Brown McKenzie, Associate Director of Regional Advancement and Director of Planned Giving. Diana is a graduate of Transylvania University and returned to her alma mater in 2012 where she spearheads planned giving. She is also an elder at South Elkhorn Christian Church in Lexington, where our former student associate Holly Fuqua serves as Associate Minister. Our own Bruce Florence is to thank for their visitation. Bruce with others are working hard trying to re-establish closer ties between the university and the local congregations. One of their concerns is the desired funding for a chaplaincy program at the school. We look forward to meeting Dr. Williams and Mrs. McKenzie and listening to their insights. One of our needed goals in the local congregation is to be aware of the various connections that we need to support as a member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ.) We have such a rich history, but I am afraid that we have lost some of that knowledge. It is time to once again exhibit a sense of pride in our religious heritage. Looking forward to seeing you on Sunday.
