NOTES OF APPRECIATION

“My deepest thanks for all the many acts of kindness, calls, food, cards, prayers and many Bibles given by the Gideons in Ron’s memory.” Carole Harris

Mary Ron and Pam Moore would like to thank everyone for the cards, prayers, memorial contributions, and other expressions of sympathy in William’s illness and death.

“Just a note to say “hello” and to “thank you” for my meal last week. It was nice to know I didn’t have to worry about what to eat for that day. Hope all are well.” Laura Bush

“Dear Church Family, Thank you so much for the cards, prayers, and calls at the passing of Mrs. Poe. It is so heartwarming to know that, despite the physical distances, we can still maintain a loving closeness within our congregation. We have enjoyed sharing the cards with all of the family – you have no idea how much that has helped.” Much love, Rachel and David Poe

“I want to express my appreciation to all who expressed sympathy during the recent passing of my step-brother Robert Zeigenfuse. It was most appreciated! What most probably aren’t aware of is that this was the 3rd Zeigenfuse passing in a January month-my step-father John (Robert’s father), my mother Elizabeth and now Robert. Adding to that is January is also my birth month. Thank all again and please continue prayers for Robert’s widow Mary Ann.” Victor Colvin

Sherry Judy would like to thank everyone for the cards, calls and prayers following her recent surgery.

WINTER GARDEN OF EDEN

“This is a little message for my Cynthiana Christian Church friends. A year ago, we had our annual 'Potato Fest' before the Virus shut everything down. This is a thought I had to help the Garden of Eden and The Harrison County Senior Center. The Center has been feeding many of our County seniors and they are in bad need of funds. Robin Florence and her crew have worked tirelessly to make sure our citizens have nourishment. We always receive a nice donation each year at the Potato Event. I challenge you to donate to The Cynthiana Christian Church, Garden of Eden fund to benefit senior meals.”

Minister's Message:

I know if you are like me and I can't imagine you are not, I miss seeing all of you. We run into each other at different locations in the community, but it is just not the same. I only know that I miss good Christian fellowship, there is nothing like it. We are trying to continue to bring your church to you in as many ways as possible. We have our Sunday morning services by way of our church website, Facebook and YouTube, not to mention our new broadcast on Sunday morning at 9:30 A.M. on WCYN. Please tell your fellow church members and friends about these opportunities. Many of you have expressed appreciation for our mid-week devotional that is shared every Wednesday. I also know that Brad has done some creative moments with our youth, playing bells, Valentines and much more. Kathy has started a very special moment for you, interviewing people of the church and playing it on Facebook. These have been some special moments enjoyed by all. You might want to checkout the Lenten devotions that are on our church website, www.cynthianachristianchurch.com click on "Journey to Calvary." We also have plans to have a devotional booklet printed for you, it will deal specifically with "The Last Week of Jesus." It will feature the day by day activities of Jesus during Holy Week, several of our leaders will be composing these presentations. They will also be available by means of Facebook that week. We will also make a deliberate attempt to make Holy Week very meaningful for all of us. As of this time we are just unsure about what we will be able to do. Hope you will be with us on Sunday morning as our sermon series continues, looking into the life of Fanny Crosby. My thanks to Pam for all her fine efforts with these services, along with our Elders and technicians who provide us a special moment of worship.
